

Cohen's Store to the Front for Monday!

Alive to Every Interest of Its Patrons.

Merchandise crowded to serve every want and comfort every purse. Full sway of the buyers has brought them in contact with every result that can lead to merchandise happiness.

SEE HOW WELL THEIR WORK HAS BEEN DONE. Walk through all the stores' many nooks and exhibits, note the prices placed on the goods and you'll know where to buy. It has always been Richmond's Safest and Surest Store, and its good work will make it hold its own as such. Read:

The Persistency to Style Ascendancy Of Made Garments

makes Cohen's store the acknowledged leader of fashion, and in all these inimitable garments the dress-loving public is served with prices that are the lowest obtainable in any store in America. The exhibit for Monday invites you to a dress conjuring act that is pre-eminent in its importance.

Gwine and Comin'.

Says the Richmond Times: "The Japs went up against the American Tobacco Company also, and the company has retreated from Japan—with a pocket full of money." The Japanese government having monopolized the tobacco business in that country, will now be one of the big customers of the American Tobacco Company. The trust seems to get money going and coming—Wilmington Star.

Dr. Kilgo to Preach.

There will be three services today at Union Station Church. At 11 A. M. and 8 P. M., Dr. J. C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, N. C., will preach. At 8:30 P. M., Rev. H. Day, of Abury Church, is expected to fill the pulpit. Mr. Hudson Watkins and Miss Dora Mitchell will sing.

DUKE OF NEWCASTLE THE LION OF THE HOUR

Richmond Has a Goodly Contingent at the Hot Springs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

VIRGINIA HOT SPRINGS, VA., Oct. 8.—Although there is quite a contingent of Richmond persons here they have been enjoying life very quietly this week, and there is little to write of interest in that direction.
The Duke of Newcastle has been the guest of honor, one might say, at least the "lion," and it was given for him at Flag Rock on Monday, as the view was particularly fine. Among those who drove to the tea was Miss Boxie Scott and Mr. F. W. Haneswinkel, of Richmond, together with Mrs. S. Barton French, Mrs. Lauer Dunn and the Misses Dunn, of Washington; Miss Gladys Ingalls, Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls, and others.

The weather is most delightful, and cooler than last week. Frosts are touching the leaves, and the mountains are more beautiful than ever. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Kate Harris are here.
There has been an unprecedented rush to this resort from the East, and will continue to the 15th, at least, for among those coming between now and then are Mr. and Mrs. Buysant Fish, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Foxhall Reese, Mr. James J. Van Allen, Miss May Van Allen, Mrs. Ogden Goebel, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Leeds, Mr. Thomas Nelson Page arrived yesterday.
Tennis is the rage this year, with both men and women, and there is a great contest to get the courts, for the demand is greater than the supply.

One of the much needed improvements will be built here this winter, and that is a palm room, and sun parlor, adjoining the hotel corridor. This will be done in December probably, after the "season" so that those here will not be annoyed with the work of construction.
WYTHEVILLE, VA.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WYTHEVILLE, VA., Oct. 8.—Mr. Herman W. Smith, of Coyners, Va., and Miss Vida L. Scott, of Bedford county, came to Wytheville on Tuesday and were married at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. John C. Orr. The bride and groom were accompanied by Wytheville by quite a number of friends.
Miss Paula Hersh, who has been the guest of the Misses Moore, on Main Street, has returned to her home in Max Meadows.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Balmer, who were the guests of Mrs. Virginia P. Kent for the month of September, have returned to their home in Richmond.
Mrs. S. W. Williams was called to Bristol by the death of her grandfather, Mr. Fayette Johnson.
Mr. Robert Williams left yesterday for Washington and Lee University, where he will attend law lectures.
Rev. W. A. R. Goodwin and family, who have been spending the summer with the former's aunt, Misses Balle and Ella Goodwin, have returned to Williamsburg, Va.
Miss Effie De Van left Tuesday for the National Park Seminary near Washington, D. C.
Rev. Samuel Woods, of the Presbyterian Church, is visiting friends in town.
Dr. George Lawson and Mr. Robert Preston have gone to Baltimore, where they will be students at the Johns Hopkine University for the coming session.

Mr. Jack Williams left this week for Bryan Texas, to attend the Agricultural and Mechanical College at that place.
LEXINGTON, VA.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., Oct. 8.—Hon. Henry St. George Tucker and family, who spent the past several months at their summer home in Lexington, have returned to Washington city for the winter, where Mr. Tucker holds the position of Dean of the Law School of George Washington University.
Rev. Dr. Robert J. McBryde, rector of R. Lee Memorial Episcopal Church, of Lexington, is in Boston, Mass., representing the Southern Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, at the Episcopal General Convention now in session in that city.
Misses Marye and Willie Moore, of Glasgow, and Mrs. D. S. Eads, of Rock-bridge, are visitors at the St. Louis Exposition. They expect to be gone three weeks.

Rev. J. H. Dean was in Lexington the past week in the interest of the Baltimore Southern Methodist, published in Baltimore.
Mrs. Nannie Eael and Miss Mary Garing are absent on a visit to Baltimore and New York.
Mr. and Mrs. William G. McCormick, of New York, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Patton at the Natural Bridge.
Mrs. Preston T. Link, of Richmond, Va., is visiting Mr. Andrew D. Bell.
Mr. Harry M. Quisenberry left Lexington this week for Richmond, where he has entered the University College of Medicine to study dentistry.
Mrs. Andrew Moore, of Pulaski county, Va., is the guest of Mrs. A. T. Barclay.
Mr. Charles E. G. Northern, of Asheville, N. C., is in Lexington visiting his mother, Mrs. Robert L. Northern.
